Time to become the OFFICE HERO

CHELTENHAM PREVIEW

Tipping Cheat Sheet

Haven't done your Cheltenham Festival homework? Fear not because you can still be an office hero courtesy of our five top tipsters.

DAY 1 (TUESDAY MARCH 12)

1.30_{PM} - SUPREME NOVICES HURDLE

MF: I have backed Fakir D'oudairies at 12/1 for this already so I'm sitting pretty. Mr Fisher should run well too.

MC: Aramon has loads of experience and was unlucky against Klassical Dream last time. Each-way chance.

LK: I thought Al Dancer was really impressive in the Betfair Hurdle and can win this.

RW: It's very open but Aramon has form at the highest level and could be value each-way in the opening race of Cheltenham 2019.

KB: Angels Breath can be forgiven for his run last time, a potential big improver.

3.30_{PM} - CHAMPION HURDLE

MF: I'm backing Buveur D'air to win his third Champion Hurdle. Apple's Jade can put it up to him but I'm worried about her tendency to jump right at her hurdles.

MC: Laurina is unbeaten since joining Team Mullins and looks a monster. Can take advantage of the 7lb weight allowance she gets off Buveur d'Air.

LK: Everyone's gone for the front three but I'll go with Sharjah each-way for a bit of value.

RW: I ride Laurina who has the potential to win a Champion Hurdle but she'll have to improve by about 7lb to thwart Buveur D'air and Apple's Jade. I hope she can.

KB: Apple's Jade looks much improved this year and this could be her big day.

DAY TWO (WEDNESDAY MARCH 13)

3.30_{PM} - CHAMPION CHASE

MF: It all comes down to Altior who can rack up his 18th consecutive win over jumps and confirm himself as one of the great racehorses of his era. Min can chase him home.

MC: Altior is the outstanding two-mile chaser and is impossible to oppose.

LK: Nothing original here but it's Altior for me.

RW: We all know how good Altior is so if it all goes the way it's gone before - we'll be all running for the places against Nicky Henderson's superstar.

KB: Altior, I love taking on favourites, but this is not one to take on.

DAY THREE (THURSDAY MARCH 14)

3.30_{PM} - STAYERS' HURDLE

MF: I would love to see Paisley Park win and think he will. I'm slightly concerned though that he was pulled up in the Albert Bartlett Hurdle last year at the Festival. Black Op could be an each-way play especially if the ground turns soft.

MC: Faugheen is a Champion Hurdle winner and stays strong. Can turn back the years.

LK: Paisley Park has just been in the best form this season, just head and shoulders above everyone.

RW: Faugheen has recovered from his fall behind Apple's Jade at Christmas but Paisley Park has been the stand-out stayer this season and he's going to be hard to beat. But I'm hopeful Faugheen can run a big race and I'm really looking forward to riding him.

KB: Paisley Park, an absolutely brilliant performance last time.

DAY FOUR (FRIDAY MARCH 15)

3.30_{PM} - CHELTENHAM GOLD CUP

MF: I'd be way more confident that Presenting Percy could win a Gold Cup if he had run over fences this season. He was really impressive in the RSA Chase last year but hasn't jumped a fence yet and his preparation doesn't warrant his price. Willie Mullins seems pretty keen on his in Bellshill, Kemboy & Al Boum and I like Bellshill as the each-way alternative.

MC: Native River landed this last year and if the rain comes he can double up for Colin Tizzard.

LK: Clan Des Obeaux deserves to be among the favs as he's beaten everything in England so far.

RW: We've three live chances in Bellshill, Kemboy and Al Boum Photo. It's easy to make a case for each one but it's also easy to pick holes in their form also. I hope I pick the right one. Presenting Percy has only had one run over hurdles this season – and no runs over fences outside of novice company. That could make him vulnerable. Paul Nicholls' Clan Des Obeaux has been the massive improver all season since winning the King George and then following up at Ascot. The more rain the better for last year's winner Native River.

KB: Clan Des Obeaux has been better than ever this season and has had a great preparation.
